A “Win/Win” for clergy and congregation

Here’s how it works:

In exchange for celebrating Eucharist on the Sunday mornings of your stay, we offer McKinney Place and a vehicle for you to drive.

(If we have an emergency, or you are serving during Advent, Christmas or Lent, you may be asked to lead additional services.)

You are responsible for your travel expenses to and from our island.

This includes any lodging in Kona or Hilo, prior to your stay at McKinney House.

Minimum stay 4 weeks.
Book by the month(s).

Write your book, memoirs, reflect, renew, recover Or just enjoy island living

Enjoy the warm, hospitable aloha of St. Jude’s Episcopal Church, in Ocean View, Hawaii. We are a small congregation, located in a rugged, rural, underserved region of Hawaii.

We provide McKinney Place, a lovely two bedroom (and a den), two bath vicarage, where you can stay during your service to our parish, and a car for you to drive.

All that is asked of you, is that you celebrate the Eucharist with us each Sunday you are in residence. The rest of the week, you are on your own to relax at home, write, tour the Big Island, swim, snorkel or visit a neighboring island. You are, of course, welcome to join any of our many ministries and outreach programs.

THE BIG ISLAND OF HAWAII

The Big Island contains 11 of the 13 official climate zones of the world. We have incredible black, green and white sand beaches to explore. You can drive from dry side Kailua Kona to wet side old Hilo Town across the Saddle Road. There are old sugar plantation small towns, Kona and Ka’u coffee mills, fresh fish to grill, and delicious island fruits to try - papaya, lilikoi, mangos, and pineapples.

You can swim, snorkel, surf, fish, golf, tour our national parks, visit macadamia nut and coffee farms or sit and be amazed by our magnificent cobalt blue water.
